Please note that participation depends on available space and other factors. Participation is free of charge, with each organization bearing its own expenses. Each organization will be assigned a table for its exhibits, ranging from approx. 4-1/2 feet to 9 feet in length. Special arrangements for standalone or other types of exhibits must be made in advance with the organizers. Participating organizations must arrange for volunteers to deliver and set up their exhibits, tend them during fair hours, and remove them by 7 pm October 9.
